

Key Facts

People's perceptions of normal vary across cultures.

Differences among humans are abundant and they should all be accepted and celebrated.

Friendships should be equal and all ideas should be valued.

Bullying is to seek to harm, intimidate, or coerce someone.

Bullying has many forms e.g. cyber, physical, verbal, social, direct and indirect bullying.

Not all disabilities are physical, some are not visible.

People are not limited to what they can achieve because of their disability.

Differences can sometimes cause conflict among members of society, however, differences are natural and should be embraced.

PSHE

Year 6

Autumn

Term:

Celebrating

Differences

Vocabulary

Word	Definition
Ability	possession of the means or skill to do something
Conflict	a serious disagreement or argument
Control	the power to influence or direct people's behaviour or the course of events
Disability	a physical or mental condition that limits a person's movements, senses, or activities
Empathy	the ability to understand and share the feelings of another
Harassment	any unwanted behaviour, physical or verbal (or even suggested), that makes a reasonable person feel uncomfortable, humiliated, or mentally
Normal	conforming to a type or standard that is considered the usual
Perseverance	persistence in doing something despite difficulty or delay in achieving success
Power	the capacity or ability to direct or influence the behaviour of others or the course of events

Key skills and concepts:

Children will be able to:

- identify differences among people and how they impact their quality of life.
- understand empathy and its importance to live in harmony with others.
- understand how conflict arises and develop empathy.
- recognise how power can affect relationships between friends.

Key Questions

How can we empathise with others and avoid discrimination?

Should power be used in social situations to exclude others?

Why do some people bully others and how can I support myself and others if bullying occurs?

How can people with disabilities leave amazing lives?

How can differences between people be a source of conflict and a cause for celebration?

