

Key skills we will learn:

- Identify and locate characteristics of the UK on a map.
- Identify human and physical features.
- Locate human and physical features on a world map.
- Explain the difference between oceans and seas.
- Name and locate the five oceans on a world map.
- Use an aerial photograph to draw a simple sketch map.
- Collect data by sketching findings on a map and completing a tally chart.
- Present their findings in a bar chart.

Headteacher: Mr Robert Fenton

Geography

Year 2

Spring 1

Why is our world wonderful?

Vocabulary

aerial photograph - A picture taken from above.

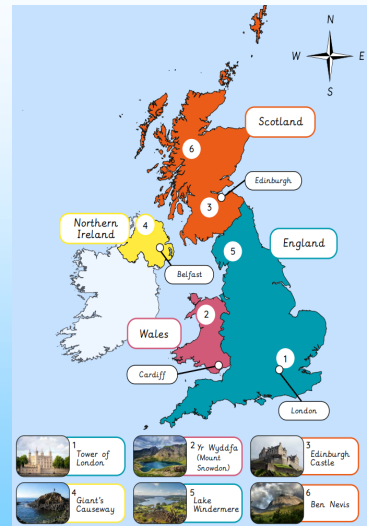

capital city - The main city of a country.

country - A large area of land with its own government.

data collection - Gathering information.

fieldwork - Learning by exploring outside.

tally chart - Counting using tally marks (||||).

Key knowledge we will learn:

- To be able to name the seven continents of the world.
- To be able to name the five oceans of the world.
- To name some characteristics of the four capital cities of the UK.
- To know the four capital cities of the UK.
- To know that a capital city is the city where a country's government is located.
- To know some key physical features of the UK.
- To know some key human features of the UK.
- To begin to recognise world maps as a flattened globe.
- To know that maps need a title and purpose.
- To know that maps need a key to explain what the symbols and colours represent.
- To know that a tally chart is a way of collecting data quickly.