

- The 'Green Cross Code' is a way to remember how to cross the road safely with six steps (see below)
- There are possible hazards when travelling by train or tube which we need to consider such as fast-moving trains, electrified rails and slippery platforms and stairs.
- Peer pressure can affect how we react to risks and can influence our decisions.
- Stealing is when someone takes something belong to someone else with the intention of not returning it. When we borrow, we intend to return it but we should ask permission when we borrow something.
- Stealing is against the law and people can be prosecuted and get a criminal record for stealing.
- Money can be kept safely in a bank account where it can be deposited and withdraw. A loan is when you borrow money from the bank but this must be paid back with interest. When you borrow money you are in debt.
- Money can be spent online in many ways. In-app purchases can result in spending someone else's money.
- There are five types of abuse that children can experience: emotional, physical and sexual abuse, neglect and bullying. It is never a child's fault if they are hurt by others. All children have a right to be safe. If you need help, talk to safe adults at home or at school. You can also speak to Childline on 0800 1111.
- Young people can be vulnerable to exploitation and it is important to recognise when you may be being taken advantage of so that you can seek help.
- Gangs are groups of people that often engage in illegal and anti-social behaviour
