

Geography

Year 1

Weather

Watchers

Knowledge

- To understand what weather is and the different types that we have in the UK.
- To understand that weather is linked to seasons.
- State how the weather can affect what we do and how we live.
- Know how can we protect ourselves from dangerous weather.
- Use information to measure how much rainfall there is across a year in the UK.
- Locate the countries and main cities of the UK on a picture map.
- Use directional language to show the location of a country or city.
- Draw a picture map to show the weather in a location.

Vocabulary

Word	Definition
temperature	A measurement by a thermometer of how hot or cold a place is.
season	The UK has four seasons: autumn, winter, spring and summer. A weather pattern is linked to each season.
weather	The conditions of place: hot or cold / dry or wet / windy or calm.
rain gauge	A piece of equipment to measure the amount of rainfall in a place. .

Common weather symbols.

Can you use these to describe the weather for today?

sunny

cloudy

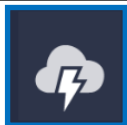

rain

partly sunny

snow

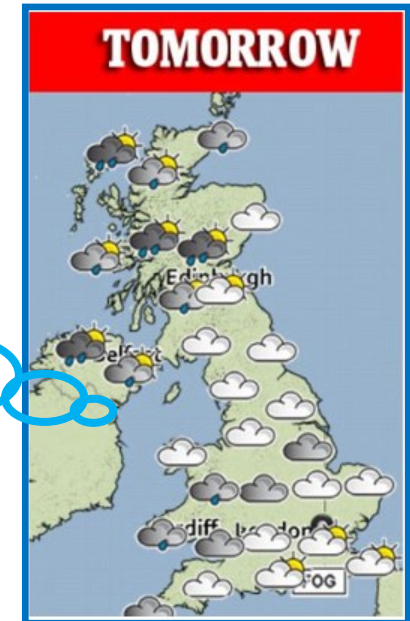

lightning

Here is a map of the UK and the weather for tomorrow.

Use the weather symbols to make a weather report.

Can you use names of places and directional language: north, south, east, west.

What type of weather has caused the danger in the photograph?

What is this extreme weather condition called?

