

You will know

- I have my own physical appearance (how I look), personality, likes and dislikes.
- We all have special people who care for us and we care for them in return. We show that we care in different ways.
- Families are groups of people who love and care for each other, spend time together, listen to each other and help each other
- Families can be different but they are equal.
- My friends might look different to me or like different things, but we have lots of things that are the same.
- Good friends are gentle, helpful, share with each other and take turns.
- We must care about each other and listen to each other or we can become sad and lonely.
- There are good and bad things about using technology. We should always be kind online and tell an adult if we are worried.
- I should ask someone for permission before I touch them or borrow something. I can say no when someone asks me for permission.
