

Key Questions

How can we show our identity through symbols?
Why are symbols important in religion?
What do Jewish people wear to show their beliefs about God?
How do Sikhs show their beliefs and values?
How do some Muslims dress to show they belong to their community?
Why must we always show respect to others for what they choose to wear?

Key Facts

- Identity means who we are, based on our appearance, hobbies, origins or if we belong to a club.
- Symbols are used for communication and religious symbols help people to worship.
- Symbols: cross = Christianity, crescent = Islam, Om = Hindu, Khanda = Sikh, Star of David = Judaism, Aum = Buddhism.
- Jewish people wear clothes to symbolise their beliefs and respect to God.
- Sikhs believe everyone is equal to God and the 5Ks show their beliefs and values.
- Muslims believe in and follow the 5 Pillars of Islam and wear clothes to show everyone is equal.

Religion & Worldviews

Year 2

How do people show their beliefs and values?

Vocabulary

Word	Definition
belief	something that is believed to be true
value	something we consider to be important to us
equal/equality	to be the same / to have the same worth community	a group of people living or working together in the same area

Here is a symbol for one of our world's religions.

- Which religion do you think it belongs to?
- What do you think the symbol shows?
- Does it suggest anything about their beliefs?