

Knowledge

Understand that people show their commitment to their religion is a variety of ways: clothes, symbol and actions they take.

Explain the celebration of Bar/Bat Mitzvah and its importance to the Jewish faith.

The difference between infant and believer's baptism, the ritual of pouring water over the head and the purpose of this.

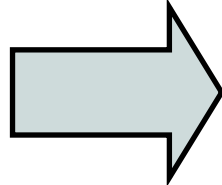

Understand the sacred Jewish day of Yom Kippur and how fasting and praying on this day shows commitment to Judaism.

The reasons for why people confess their sins and how they atone to receive forgiveness.

The difference between kindness and charity and the reasons different religions give to charity.

Key Facts

- A synagogue is a building where Jewish people meet for religious worship.
- A church is a Christian place of worship.
- The Jewish holy book is called the Torah It has 613 commandments known as the mitzvah.
- The Christian holy book is called the Bible. It is made up of the Old and New Testament.
- A Christian religious is called a priest or vicar.
- A Jewish religious leader is called a Rabbi.

Religion & Worldviews

Year 5

What is Commitment?

Vocabulary

Word	Definition
atone	To make changes to make good choices for the way a person lives.
commitment	To believe in and show dedication to something or someone.
repent	A person understands what they have done wrong and asks for forgiveness.
confession	A ritual where you ask for forgiveness for your sins and show you are ready to repent.
free will	Being able to choose between different actions and making the choice that is right for you that will not harm others.

What is happening in this ceremony?.

- Which religion do you think it belongs to?
- Why is water being used?
- How does it show commitment to the faith?